MONDAY EVENING, SEPT. 15, 1902

GREATEST CITY IN THE WORLD The report of the London County Council published last week furnished some striking figures indicating the immensity of the municipal problem with which London authorities are confronted. According to the census of 1901 the population of the administrative county of London was 4,536,541, while Greater London immediately surrounding the county showed an addi-tional population of 6,500,000. The lunacy statistics of the administrative innacy states of 50 per cent in the last ten years, the total number of lunaties being 21,369, for which drink and business and domestic troubles were accounted to be largely responsible. The London County Council has to maintain 2,017 miles of paving, a large section of which is in a constant state of upheaval, owing to the number of gas, electric and water companies having the power to open roadways. The problem power to open roadways. The problem of housing the working people is dealt with on a large scale, the council acting as landlord to a population of 12,596 hou of in cottages, block dwellings and various other structures. The year's various other structures. The year's working showed a net surplus of $11,7 555 for these dwellings, compared with a deficit of $5,785 for the previous year. The council is a large owner of omnibus and street car lines, which carried last year over 118,000,000 passengers, while all the omnibus lines of Greater London showed the groupous total of 520,000,000. showed the enormous total of 530,000,000 passengers. The city's debt statistics show a discouraging increase, the total debt outstanding being $231,344,355, equivalent to 124.98 per cent of the rateable value, against 104.64 per cent when the London County Council came into 2 existence. The tax rate now amounts to about 364 cents per pound

COURT OF APPEALS.

The following business was transacted in the Court of Appeals at Saunton, last Friday.

William M. McAllister, trustee, &c.,

Water Cure for Chronic Constipa tion.

Take two cups of hot water half ar hour before each meal and just before going to bed, also a drink of water, hot or cold, about two hours after each meal. Take lots of outdoor exercise—walk, ride, drive. Make a regular habit of this and in many cases chronic constipation may be cured without the use or any medicine. When a purgative is required take something mild and gentle like Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. For sale by Richard Gibson.

Beware of the Knife.

No profession has advanced more rapidly of late than surgery, but it should not be used except where absolutely necessary. In cases of piles for example, it is seldom needed. De-Witt's Witch Hazel Salve cares quickly and permanently. Unequalled for cuts, burns, bruises, wounds, skin diseases. Accept no counterfeits. "I was so troubled with bleeding piles that I lest much blood and strength," says J. C. Phillips, Paris, III. "Dewitt's Witch Hazel Salve cured me in a short time." Soothes and heals. For sale by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons. Leadbester & So
